

Personal Information and Privacy

We collect information about you and your health for such things as:

- We keep your information secure and check that only authorised people access it.
- You or a nominated person has the right to request access to your health information and request changes to it.
- We may share this information with other health professionals involved in your care.
- We may supply your information to other agencies for the purposes set out above or where we are required to by law.
- You can ask us not to release your information and we will comply with this wherever possible.
- You have a right not to provide us with requested information, however we may not be able to treat or care for you properly.